

LLOYD OLSON

✉ LLOYD.OLSON99@GMAIL.COM

☎ +1 647 917 9434

📍 1-6200 Shirley Street, Halifax, NS, B3H 2N4

PROFILE

I am a Japanese-Canadian, raised in Hong Kong, China and Japan, and I moved to Canada in 2019. I am currently studying at Dalhousie University in the field of Earth Science. I am fluent in English, Japanese and proficient in Mandarin Chinese. I have a range of skills from advanced field work expertise including geological mapping, remote wilderness camping ability and precise laboratory dexterity.

LANGUAGES

English, Japanese,
Mandarin Chinese

LICENSES

Class 5 Nova Scotia
Driver's License

EDUCATION

Earth Science Major at Dalhousie University, Halifax, NS (2020-present)

Japanese Language Proficiency Test N2 Certificate (2019)

Japanese Language Course at Beppu Daigaku, Oita, Japan (2017-18)

International Baccalaureate from West Island School, Hong Kong (2018)

FIELD WORK EXPERIENCE

Trinidad and Tobago Petroleum Geoscience Field School with Dalhousie University (2023)

Southwest US Advanced Field School with Dalhousie University (2023)

Nova Scotia Field School with Dalhousie University (2022)

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Vessel Meats Market Vendor, Halifax, NS (current)

Lab Assistant in Crisdal Lab, Dalhousie University, Halifax, NS (current)

Lab Assistant in Experimental Lab, Dalhousie University, Halifax, NS (Sep-Dec 2022)

Apprentice at Moroski Dairy Farm, Arborg, MB (Jun-Aug 2022)

Apprentice at Wayward Farm, Bridgewater, NS (May-Jun 2022)

Military Interpreter at Halifax Citadel, Halifax, NS (May-Aug 2021)

Apprentice at Jesse's Contracting, Toronto, ON (Jul-Aug 2019)

Yard Labourer at Central Fairbank Lumber, Toronto, ON (Nov 2018-Jun 2019)

REFERENCES

Alexis Imperial (Crisdal Lab): alexis.imperial@dal.ca

Lydia Fairhurst (Experimental Lab): +1 902 401 5750, lydiafairhurst@dal.ca